

PSB Symposium: Women in Structural Biology

Thursday 2nd of February 2012

IBS seminar room

THE PARTNERSHIP FOR STRUCTURAL BIOLOGY

Program

- 9:30 Prof. Angela M. Gronenborn, University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh
“Synergy between NMR and cryo-EM: Novel findings for HIV capsid function”
- 10:15 Coffee break
- 10:45 Dr. Anne Imberty, CERMAV-CNRS, Grenoble
“The sweet tooth of pathogens. Structure and function of bacterial lectins”
- 11:30 Dr. Anja Böckmann, IBCP-CNRS, Lyon
“Solid-state NMR studies of protein fibrils”
- 12:15 Lunch
- 13:30 Dr. Teresa Carlomagno, EMBL, Heidelberg
“Mechanisms of intermolecular recognition in large complexes studied by NMR”
- 14:15 Prof. Eva Pebay-Peyroula, IBS, Grenoble
“Structural biology of membrane proteins: What is new in the field of the ADP/ATP carrier”
- 15:00 Coffee break
- 15:30 Prof. H. Jane Dyson, Scripps Research Institute, La Jolla
“Motion and disorder in structural biology”

All participants should register before 26th of January 2012 to: malene.ringkjober-jensen@ibs.fr
